

NICO meniGLIDE™ for Access

Providing access through the meninges for intracranial and spine procedures

The meniGLIDE is designed for control and safety to open the meninges while protecting collateral tissue in preparation for a surgical procedure.

Product Features

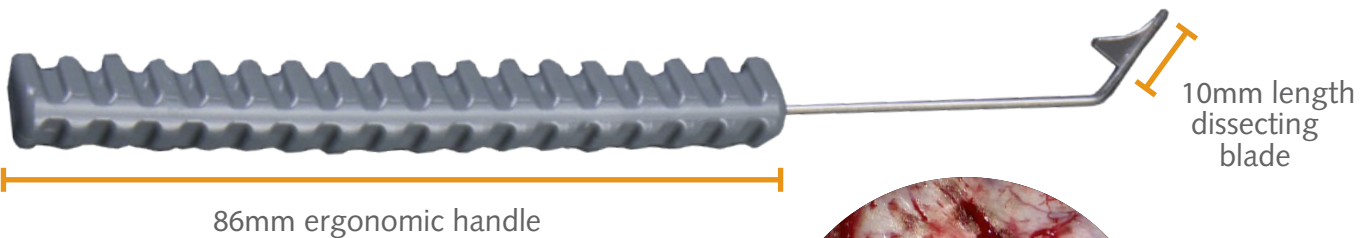

1 Malleable, low-profile shaft for enhanced visualization

2 Atraumatic dissecting tip and footplate designed to protect underlying structures

Product Information

- Product Number: NN-8040
- Sterile / Single-use
- May be purchased as an ancillary product (5 per box)

Click to view the meniGLIDE achieving access

Scan the QR Code to learn more about the meniGLIDE and other NICO products used in the BrainPath® Approach.

